90 POINTS

Tasting Notes:

"The 2013 Touriga Nacional was aged in French oak (half new, half used) for 12 months. A bit earthy and rather powerful for the level, this is a very focused Touriga with elegance in the mid-palate and a fairly intense finish. Pointed and focused, this is showing rather well, with a lingering finish and fine structure. It's a very nice bargain. There were 3,000 cases produced."
